“EVERYTHING SOON CURRY, MAMA NO WORRY...”

A phrase of reassurance becomes a reggae anthem of patience, faith and perseverance.

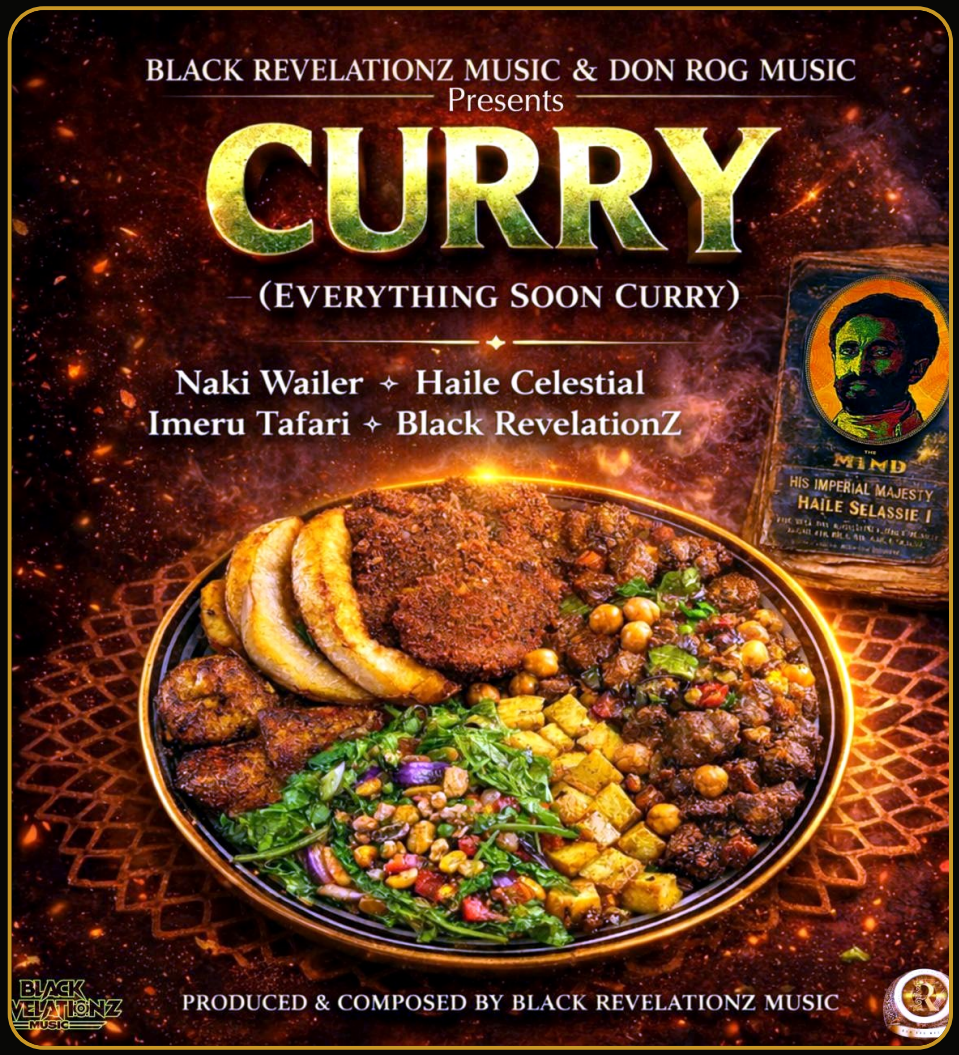

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

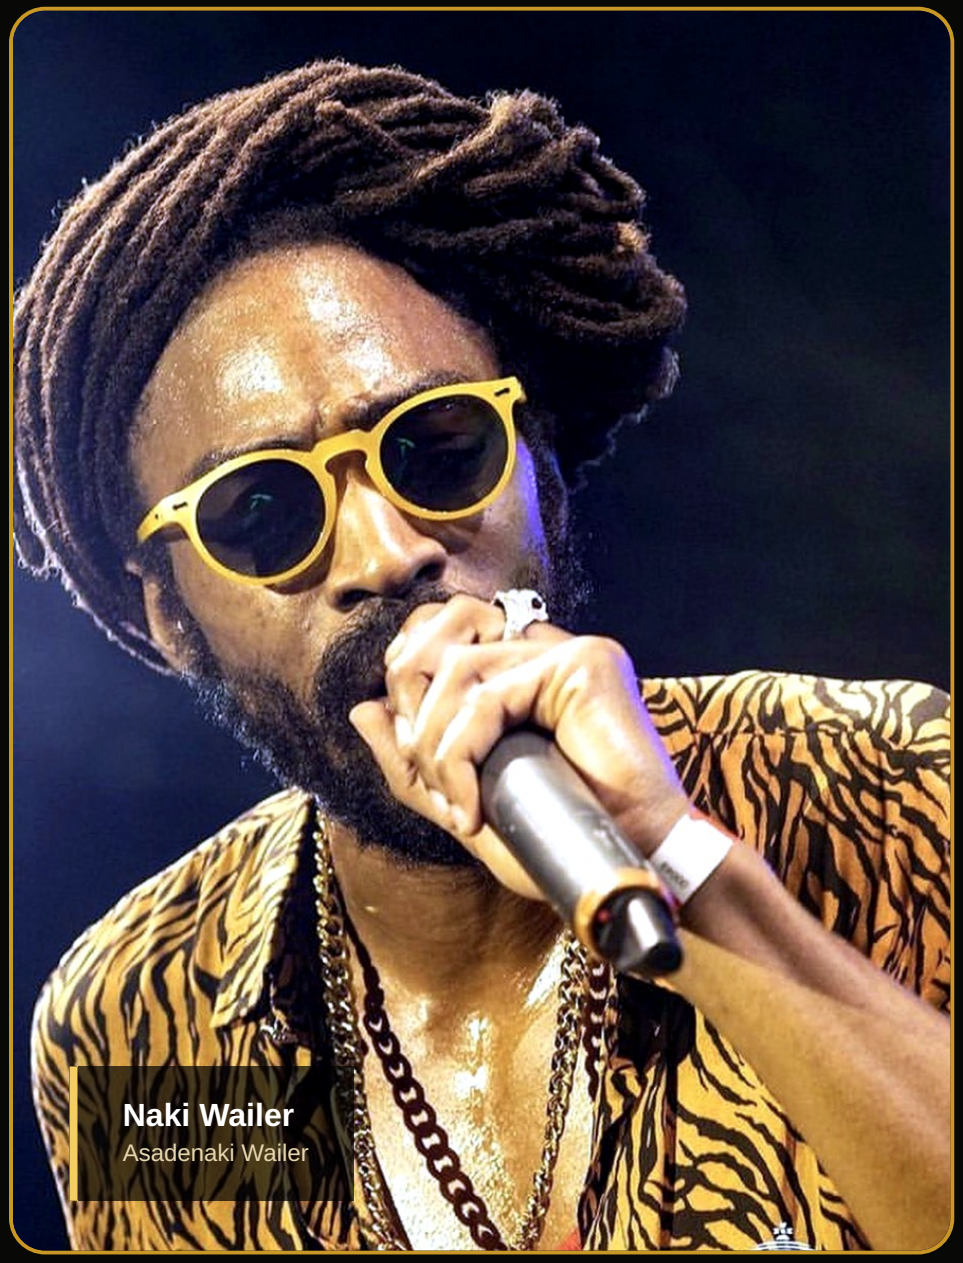

REGGAE HERITAGE MEETS THE FUTURE

Kingston, Jamaica - A new generation of conscious reggae voices comes together in Curry (Everything Soon Curry), an uplifting roots reggae anthem led by Black RevelationZ Music and co-produced by Don Rog Music.

Built around resilience, faith, family and Rastafari philosophy, the record unites three artists whose musical bloodlines and spiritual convictions bring authenticity to every verse.

The song carries a message of reassurance for families, communities and listeners enduring difficult seasons: every hardship eventually finds resolution.

FEATURED ARTIST

NAKI WAILER

Fronting the release is Naki Wailer, also known as Asadenaki Wailer, son of the late reggae icon Bunny Wailer, founding member of The Wailers.

On this record, Naki continues the Wailer lineage with a voice rooted in family, faith and cultural memory. His chorus becomes the emotional center of the song - simple, memorable and deeply reassuring.

FEATURED ARTIST

IMERU TAFARI

Imeru Tafari brings a spiritually grounded presence to the record, with lyrical imagery rooted in Rastafari consciousness, African identity and perseverance.

His verse expands the song's vision beyond personal struggle into a wider cultural and spiritual journey - a reminder that the youth must keep sight of Africa, purpose and the battle ahead.

“INNA MI MIND ME GET A VISION...”

Imeru Tafari
Conscious Reggae Voice

FEATURED ARTIST

HAILE CELESTIAL

Haile Celestial, also known as 5Star, adds warrior energy and sharp lyrical conviction to the collaboration.

His performance strengthens the record's themes of spiritual authority, discipline and resilience, giving the track a modern conscious reggae edge while remaining rooted in tradition.

“RISE UP DI BANNER...”

SOON CURRY

While the title may initially evoke Jamaica's beloved national dish, Everything Soon Curry carries a deeper meaning. It suggests that every hardship eventually finds resolution - that patience, perseverance and faith transform struggle into blessing.

THEMES

- Perseverance through adversity
- Rastafari consciousness

BEHIND THE RECORD

PRODUCTION STORY

For Black RevelationZ Music, the project reflects an ongoing commitment to producing authentic reggae rooted in culture while introducing the next generation of conscious voices.

As co-producer, Don Rog Music joins that vision by helping shape a production that respects reggae's foundation while delivering a polished contemporary sound capable of reaching audiences worldwide.

The production is elevated by the sonic craftsmanship of Stephen “Patu” Brown of Carinligo, whose mixing and mastering provide warmth, depth and clarity.

LYRICS SPOTLIGHT

THE CHORUS AS REASSURANCE

EVERYTHING SOON
CURRY
MAMA NO WORRY
EVERY BEAN SOON
CURRY
NO BOTHER WORRY

The infectious chorus serves as a reassurance to families, communities and anyone enduring difficult seasons.

Rather than dwelling on struggle, the song celebrates unwavering faith that abundance follows endurance.

As the chorus repeats, its message becomes impossible to ignore: comfort and prophecy.
